Airplanes Group does not intend to publish any further quarterly reports

Airplanes Group has in the past published quarterly reports on its website www.airplanes-group.com. The most recent quarterly report was published on July 28, 2016 for the quarter ended June 30, 2016, which covered the period during which the final aircraft in Airplanes Group's portfolio were sold. Given that there are no longer any aircraft in the portfolio, Airplanes Group does not intend to publish any further quarterly reports. Material developments in relation to the affairs of Airplanes Group will be notified to investors via press releases which will be published on the Airplanes Group website and provided to UMB Bank, National Association as indenture trustee for dissemination to investors. Airplanes Group will continue to publish monthly reports.
